GEPF mourns the passing of two Board Members

The Government Employees Pension Fund (GEPF) is shocked and saddened by the passing of two of its Board Members, Mr Alan Thompson and Dr Lese Matlhabe on 04 January 2021.

Dr Lese Matlhabe served as a specialist trustee on the Remuneration Committee since 2015 while Mr Alan Thompson served as a Trustee on the Board as well as a member of the Finance and Audit Committee and the Benefits and Administration Committee from 2018.

GEPF Chairperson of the Board, Dr Renosi Mokate, on behalf of the Board and staff members passes her deepest condolences to the Thompson and Matlhabe families, their colleagues and friends.

The GEPF acknowledges the dedication, diligence and professionalism with which the two Trustees served the Fund. The Fund will forever be grateful for their selflessness and dedication to its members, pensioners and beneficiaries.

May their souls Rest in Peace.
